Editor Roundabout:

Will you please announce my name as a candidate for the office of Jailor of Franklin county. I'm compelled to take this method to satisfy my numerous friends. Another consideration is, that there is no one with patriotism enough to make the sacrifice for the good of the county. Of course I'm subject to the action of the Republican and Democratic parties.

If I can't get the office of Jailor, I would not mind having that of Public Printer. If I can't get either, would take that of Warden of the Penitentiary.

Your Uncle,

ZEKE YOCUM.

P. S.—I don't want the Public Printing if it is let out to the lowest bidder and am against the Cow Bill.

Sandridge.

Miss Eyy Gordon, daughter of Mr. Bart Gordon, of Flag Fork, died last month in Arkansas, aged 15 years.

Mr. Sherman Hutchison died on the 5th inst., at his father's, near Flat Creek, aged about 21 years.

The following sales of tobacco were made in Louisville recently by farmers from this section: By Messrs. Geo. Brawner & Co. for $8, $4.10 and $3.35 per hundred; Miles & Co., $9.40, $6.70, and $5.00; Jas. P. Gordon, $12, and $7.80; Wm. Arnold average $6.00.

Mr. Jas. Gordon's boys, James and Samuel, were hauling fodder a few days since, and left their horses hitched to a bush while they followed a dog running a rabbit. When they returned one of the horses had so entangled himself in the gear as to choke himself down, and it was at first thought it was dead, but after cutting the hame string and some of the gear he got up all right. The boys were so frightened that they will hardly leave the team standing again soon.

Don't Eat in a Hurry.

A health journal says that people ought to take three-quarters of an hour for dinner. This is well if there is enough dinner to hold out so long. The penalty for hurrying meals, as most people do, is a grievous attack of dyspepsia. In such cases you will have to resort to Brown's Iron Bitters for cure, as did Mr. J. R. Pinkston, Shorter's Depot, Ala., who writes, "I found relief in Brown's Iron Bitters after ten years of suffering from dyspepsia."

Resolutions of Respect.

At the meeting of Hiram Lodge, No. 4, A. Y. M., held on Tuesday evening, February 9th, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, It has pleased the Grand Architect of the Universe to suddenly call from his earthly labors to the eternal refreshment on high our well beloved brother E. Whitesides, who has been long endeared to us as a most zealous friend and faithful supporter of our time honored institution; therefore

Resolved, That in this solemn bereavement we be admonished and taught the great importance of preparing to meet him in the Grand Lodge above, where we trust and believe he has been admitted.

Resolved, That we will ever cherish a deep sense of his many virtues and endeavor to imitate them.

Resolved, That in his death a pillar of strength to our order has fallen, the community has lost a valuable citizen, and his family a kind and affectionate husband and father; and to them we extend our deepest sympathy in this their great affliction.

Resolved, That these resolutions, under the seal of the Lodge, be transmitted to his family, recorded upon a memorial page in the minutes, and published in the city papers.

W. W. She heard of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and began buying it of me. In six months' time she walked to this city, a distance of sixty miles, and is now so much improved she has quit using it. She feels she owes her life to it." ## FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

Entered at the post-office at Frankfort, Kentucky as second class mailable matter.

GEORGE A. LEWIS.

Editor and Publisher.

FRANKFORT, FEBRUARY 13, 1886.

Mr. R. Campbell Steele, of this city, has leased the Moody House at Eminence and will take charge of it on the first of April.

The City Council on Tuesday evening elected Mr. J. W. Pruett a member of the Board of School Trustees to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Mr. E. Whitesides.

Col. R. D. Allen, Superintendent Kentucky Military Institute, this county, has been appointed an assistant Professor in the Correspondence University of Chicago.

The Assembly Ball Club will give a fancy dress masquerade hop on Thursday evening next, the 18th inst., and on the following Thursday, the 25th, they will also give a children's fancy dress hop, both of which will be brilliant affairs.

Mr. Edward O'Hara and Miss Nora Church, of this county, went to Louisville Monday afternoon and were married by Rev. A. I. Hobbs at his study in that city the same evening. The parties were both of age, but opposition on the part of the young lady's parents caused them to leave home. They returned to his home, on the Peak's Mill pike, Tuesday, and have settled down to housekeeping.

The following ladies will furnish the Woman's Exchange of the Methodist Church for Saturday, the 13th inst.: Mrs. Jos. B. Lewis, Mrs. Russell Rodman, Mrs. W. R. Franklin, Mrs. H. R. Williams, Mrs. Jas. Miles, Mrs. G. C. Kelly, Mrs. Andrew Cain, Misses Martha Crumbaugh, Lena Coke, Minnie Cain and Nettie Hughes. The articles for sale will be at Mrs. Hallman's millinery store, Main street, between the hours of 11 a. m. and 6 p. m.

The following officers were elected by Capital Lodge No. 209, I. O. G. T., on Thursday evening of last week for the ensuing term:

Thos. J. Harris, W. C. T.
Mrs. Mary Hyde, W. C. T.
H. G. Mattern, W. C. T.
E. M. Hansbrough, W. Sec'y.
Carlton Graham, W. F. Sec'y.
John Grant, W. Treas.
Rev. W. H. Hampton, W. Chap.
W. L. Ways, W. M.
Thos. Hunter, W. I. G.
John W. Reading, W. Sent.

The Lodge meets regularly every Thursday evening in Masonic Hall. Visiting members are cordially invited to attend.

The Teachers' Meeting to be held at the Opera House in Frankfort, on the 27th of February, seems to have the good wishes of everybody. The Louisville & Nashville railroad has written the management that teachers and others who desire to attend this meeting over this road can do so at reduced rates. This will do the road no harm and will do the meeting good, as the effect will be to greatly increase the attendance at the meeting. Newspapers friendly to the teachers and children of the State will take pleasure in making known this arrangement so that all who desire to have its benefits may know of this generous offer on the part of the L. & N. R. R. Co.

English Comic Opera.

The music and mirth lovers of Frankfort must not measure the Ford Opera company with any we have had here this season. It has thirty-two members, the largest that we have had here. Mr. Ford's company is a metropolitan and first-class in every respect, and gives Opera with magnificent scenery, splendid costumes and a company of rare comedians and beautiful ladies. His expenses are trouble to none of the cheap companies, as the best talent always commands the highest pay, when scrub performers can be had for nominal pay. We hope sincerely that all Frankfort will recognize this fact, and by liberal patronage encourage Mr. Ford to send her great attractions in the near future.

Northern Seed Oats for sale. Apply to Sam Martin, Stedmanville.

To-morrow is St. Valentine's day, but as the Post-Office will not be open, the children who usually enjoy sending comic valentines will have to wait a day for their fun.

The Owen County Democrat gets in the following centre shot:

The average Kentucky Legislator is always whining about the Frankfort Capitol, but he never willingly leaves it. He hangs on like grim death to an expiring "nigger." He would willingly stay there the balance of his life, and would wish no greater honor than to be buried beneath its ruins.

Mrs. Lucy Bainbridge will deliver a lecture on missions at the First Presbyterian Church on Friday evening next, the 18th inst. Mrs. Bainbridge is working under the auspices of the Woman's Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church, and is peculiarly fitted for the important work in which she is engaged, having spent two years in a journey around the world with her husband, and visited over a thousand mission stations. The public generally are invited to attend.

Hon. W. J. Worthington, of Greenup, Hon. Wm. Bowman, of Lewis, and Hon. Fountain Fox Bobbitt, of Lincoln, delivered temperance addresses at the Court-House Tuesday evening before the Blue Ribbon Temperance Club. A large and attentive audience was in attendance, who pronounce the speeches eloquent and convincing arguments. The meetings of the Club are held regularly every Tuesday evening, and these gentlemen have agreed to address the club at any time they may be called upon.

The only performance of the great comic opera of "Mikado" will be given in this city Monday night at the Opera House by Ford's English Opera Co. The party comprises thirty-two persons. Mr. Ford's company is a superb one, and their interpretation of "Mikado" is said by all those who have seen it to be matchless. It is due to our love for merriment, music and beauty to crowd the house Monday night. A fair Kentucky girl plays "Pitti Sing," and a bevy of bright and handsome Baltimore ladies comprise the chorus and the other parts. Welcome them in "Mikado."

Death of Mr. Alex. McEwan.

Mr. Alex. McEwan died at his home in South Frankfort on Monday evening, the 55th year of his age. He had been in failing health for the past six months, but hopes were entertained of his ultimate recovery until Monday morning, when he was stricken with paralysis and sank rapidly until his death.

The deceased was born in Deanston, Scotland, September 25, 1831, and emigrated with his parents to this country in July, 1844, and located in this city, where he worked at his trade, that of carpenter, until 1862, when he volunteered as a private in Capt. Jas. R. Page's Company, of the Ninth Kentucky Cavalry, Col. Jacobs. After his term of service in the Army expired he removed with his family to Indiana, where he resided for two years and then returned to this city.

In 1877 he went into the furniture and undertaking business with Mr. E. Whitesides, who preceded him to the tomb but two weeks since, in which business he remained until the state of his health necessitated a dissolution of partnership last November. On the death of the late John R. Graham, some six years since, he was elected to succeed him as Coroner and continued to hold that position until December last. He was a prominent member of the Odd Fellows for many years, a member of the Methodist Church, a kind and affectionate husband and father, true to his friends, and a citizen who held the respect of all who knew him.

In November, 1855, he was married to Miss Caroline Vincent, who, together with seven children, still survives him, to whom the warmest sympathy of a large circle of friends is extended.

The funeral took place from the Methodist Church Thursday afternoon, having been deferred to enable his son, Rev. W. L. McEwan, of Wilmington, Delaware, to reach here, and was largely attended.

Louisville Tobacco Market.

FURNISHED BY GLOVER & DUBRETT, PROPRIETORS LOUISVILLE TOBACCO WAREHOUSE.

The sales have been exceedingly large again this week, amounting to 3,531 bbls. The offerings have embraced a large percent. of new Burley, but nothing of extra fine quality has appeared, and the general inferiority of the crop is becoming more conspicuous as the season advances.

A large amount of tobacco has changed ownership in the hands of the country since the middle of January at figures which vary very much according to locality.

The recent unfavorable weather conditions will materially retard receipts for at least another week. The following quotations fairly represent the market, at present, for New Burley.

Trash.....	$5.00 to $4.00.
Colony Trash.....	4.00 to 5.00.
Common Lugs not colony.....	4.50 to 5.50.
Colony Lugs.....	5.50 to 7.50.
Common Leaf not colony.....	5.50 to 7.00.
Good Leaf.....	7.50 to 10.00.
Fine Leaf.....	10.00 to 15.00.
Select Wrappery Tobacco.....	15.00 to 18.50.

Mr. Thomas, Mate on the Hibernia, had one of his feet badly frozen on the last trip of the boat down from this city to Louisville.

To-morrow morning Mr. Darsie preaches on "The Comfort of the Scriptures," and at night on "The Divine Claim Supreme." All are welcome.

Mr. J. Gray McLenn, Private Secretary to Auditor Hewitt, is an applicant for the position of Stenographer to the committees of Congress. The salary attached is $4,000 per year.

Mrs. Kate Straus, sister of Mrs. J. John Logsdon, while walking from the Capital Hotel to the depot in Frankfort Monday, slipped on the icy pavement and painfully hurt herself. She came on to Midway, and is at this writing much better. Dr. Sutton, her physician, thinks she will soon be up.—Midway Clipper.

Dr. J. G. Hatchitt, formerly Postmaster at this place, has written a letter to Gen. John A. Logan, from San Marcial, New Mexico, requesting him, when the confirmation of Mr. G. R. Rodman, his successor, comes up in the U. S. Senate, that he call for the papers in the case in order that it may be known whether any charges have been filed against the Doctor.

Judge F. B. Feland, editor of the Anderson News, and Miss Ella H. King, of Lincoln county, were married on Wednesday. Having chosen this King to rule over his heart and home we trust that the Judge will always Feland act as a true and loyal subject should. Here's luck to you, neighbor; may the News, with the aid of its new and beautiful assistant editor, go on to prosperity and wealth.

To the Democratic Voters of Franklin County.

Thinking you for the kind consideration many of you expressed toward me in my aspirations for the office of County Surveyor, I respectfully decline to make the race on account of circumstances over which I have no control.

Very Respectfully,

TOM K. JETT.

Cure for Piles.

Piles are frequently preceded by a sense of weight in the back, loins and lower part of the abdomen, causing the patient to suppose he has some affection of the kidneys or neighboring organs. At times, symptoms of indigestion are present, flatulency, uneasiness of the stomach, etc. Anorexia, like perspiration, producing a very disagreeable itching, after getting warm, is a common attendant. Blind, Bleeding and Itching Piles yield at once to the application of Dr. Bosanko's Pile Remedy, which acts directly upon the parts affected, absorbing the Tumors, allaying the intense itching, and effecting a permanent cure. Price 50 cents. Address, THE DR. BOSANKO MEDICINE CO., Piqua, O. Sold by Hughes & Chiles.

BORN.

In this city, on Friday, February 6th, to Mr. J. R. Williams and wife, a son.

MARRIED.

At Frankfort, February 9, by Rev. J. McCluskey, D. D., Mr. Geo. J. Nark of the Spring Ky., and Miss Louise E. Southwell of Frankfort.

At the Christian Church in Lawrenceburg, on Thursday, February 11th, 1886, by Rev. Geo. Jarvie, Prof. J. M. R. BARNETT, and Miss MATTIE BOND, both of Lawrenceburg.

At the residence of the bride, on Wednesday evening, February 10th, by Rev. George Darsie, Mr. H. T. NEWTON, of Spencer county, and Miss FLORENCE E. HONKARER, of Belle Point.

DIED.

At the residence of her brother-in-law, Mr. C. W. Merchant, in this city, on Saturday, February 6, 1886, Mrs. SARAH MERRITT, aged 62 years.

The early morning freight train from Louisville ran off the track about a mile and a half west of this city Monday morning, causing a delay of six or seven hours to all trains. Andrew Scott returned Monday from Morehead, Rowan county, with the scalps of the Tolliver faction, having succeeded in clearing Cook Humphrey, the leader of the Martin faction in that county, for whom he was principal counsel in his trial last week. The mask party at Woodlake, last Monday evening, at the residence of Mr. G. W. Cohorn, to celebrate his 46 birthday, was the most pleasant, interesting and enjoyable affairs of the kind that we have seen since the days our youth. The masqueraders were arrayed in handsome and brilliant costumes, and each character represented was acted to perfection. At 11 o'clock we were ushered in the dining hall and there upon the tables was a supper which the kind and generous hearted hostess had spread for her guests and contained substantial, luxuries and delicacies to suit the most fastidious taste. Space forbids a fuller description.

The following is a list of the ladies that were masked and the characters they represented:

Miss Mattie Haynes, of Peak's Mill, as Madame Debris; Miss Mollie Lucas, as Cinderella; Miss Emma Fight, of White Sulphur, as Cinderella's half sister; Miss Maud Fight, of White Sulphur, as fortune teller; Miss Jennie Thomasson, as Red Ridinghood; Miss Annie Hana, of the Stamp, as Cinderella's half sister; Miss Ollie Hockersmith, of White Sulphur, as Highland Mary; Miss Kate Hockersmith, of White Sulphur, as Red Ridinghood; Miss Lula Cohorn, as the bride of ye olden times; Miss Josie Jones, as morning star; Miss Josie Risk, as 30 years ago; Miss Mary Skinner, of White Sulphur, ghost; Miss Carrie Hanley, of Jett Station, as phantom; Miss Maud Emerson, as party girl.

We regret that we can't give the names of the gentlemen who were masked, and others, as the space allotted to us is about taken up, we can only give the names of gentlemen from a distance. Mt. Lewis Plummer, of Minorsville; Mr. Bee Anderson, of Harrison county; Mr. and Miss Cohorn, of Elmville, and several ladies and gentlemen around Woodlake.
